PCN1090

Detailed Description of Change

IXYS Integrated Circuits Division (ICD), now part of Littelfuse, has made changes to the branding of the following part numbers:

LCA712

LCA712S

LCA712STR

Branding of the LCA712 and all its variants will be changing from a printed white ink brand located on both the top and bottom side of the package to a laser brand located on the top-side only. A detailed example of the current and future branding formats of the LCA712 can be seen below in Appendix 1.

These changes are effective April 13, 2021.

The PCN number assigned to this action is PCN1090 and must be referenced in any correspondence related to the change.

Reason for Change

The branding activity, currently being done at the Littelfuse, IXYS ICD facility located in Beverly, Massachusetts, USA, is being reassigned to a subcontractor.
